

Elks' Convention at Baltimore, Md.

The grand reunion of Elks which is scheduled for Baltimore, July 21-23, will, beyond a doubt, surpass all former conventions of this order in point of attendance.

The Baltimore Lodge is preparing to outdo itself in the entertainment of visiting Elks from Kentucky, Indiana and the Western States.

The Interstate and Territorial Association of Elks, which includes lodges from Missouri, Kansas, Arkansas, Oklahoma and Indian Territories, has arranged for a special train for this occasion, which from the point of departure will be the finest train that ever passed through the State of Kentucky. This train, composed of one sixty-foot baggage and commissary car, two tourist sleepers, five standard sleepers, one observation sleeper and as many additional sleeping and chair cars as necessary, all of wide vestibule pattern and the finest equipment turned out by the Pullman Company, will leave Kansas City, Saturday, July 18, at 10:50 p. m. over the Wabash Railroad to St. Louis, from that point over the popular Henderson Route, making stops at Evansville, Henderson and Owensboro for the benefit of the Indiana and Kentucky Elks and their friends, arriving at Louisville, Sunday evening July 19, at 6:15 p. m., where supper will be served at the Louisville Hotel. From Louisville the route will be over the scenic C. & O. Railway, train leaving at 7:30 p. m., arriving in Baltimore early in the afternoon of the 20th.

Reservations have already been made for over two hundred Elks on this train.

EIGHTY-YEAR-OLD PUMPKIN.—At Petersburg, Ky., Henry N. Gordon has a pumpkin that is 80 years old. It was placed in a cellar by his grandparents 80 years ago, and it began to petrify, and is now as hard as a stone. It still retains its rich yellow color.

FOR RENT.—Two cottages for rent. Apply to N. H. Bayles for particulars.

PROGRESSIVE PEANUT PARTY.—The latest amusement in Kansas is the progressive peanut party, which sounds harmless. Only women play the game, for it is too great a nervous strain for a man. A dishful of peanuts is placed on a table, and four women armed with hatpins, take seats around it, and at a signal begin to jab into the peanuts. It is a foul to touch a peanut with the hands, and the two sticking the most peanuts on the hatpin win, and progress to the next table. Social life in the West must be very pleasant.

General Clay Mad at Nurse.

The trained nurse sent from Lexington to White Hall to attend General Cassius M. Clay during his illness has returned to her home as Gen. Clay refused to permit her to do anything for him. When the nurse first arrived at White Hall, Gen. Clay was very anxious for her to do all she could to relieve him, and was grateful for the relief he received from her care and skill, but after she had been with him a few days and family servants removed all of his weapons from the room on order of the committee appointed by the court, and then told Gen. Clay they were removed by the trained nurse, and his mind became so poisoned against her that he would not permit her to render him the slightest service.

Latest Fashion Notes.

STREET COSTUME OF BLUE HOPSACK

A stylish costume is an absolute necessity, and an evidence of good taste and workmanship, is shown in a gown of blue hopsack. This has a novel collar, which gives the long-shouldered effect and the six prongs of which cross in front and are completed with an ornament of pendants. Narrow plaited supply decorations, and a lot of the stitching a great deal of which appears on the bottom of the skirt and just above the strappings of the skirt, is done with Corticelli stitching silk of the same shade, size D. This silk comes on one quarter ounce spools, and has generally been adopted by the best dress makers since it is just the right size and twist for stitching purposes.

The pouched or blouse neck is fast being superseded by the deep crescent and long narrow buckle, suggesting the pointed stomacher, and many evening bodices show the pointed lower edge. Floral patterns obtain for the thin gown for warm days, and a prodigious display of coarse lace set on white bobbinet and shirtings will be the salient feature. The exaggerated long shoulders will be given by the deep lace collars of all descriptions and construction, and when these are not employed fichus daintily ruffled and frilled will replace them.
